

María del Socorro Lomeli Sánchez

Profile

Professional committed to the results of a business, likes to work in teams striving for high results, with innovation and continuous improvement as our basis, within a frame of values and social responsibility.

Participates actively in the generation of processes with a systemic approach and to the development of skills of the students and collaborators.

Education

Masters in Financial Administration at CETYS University, Campus Ensenada, 1998-2000

Bachelor Degree in Industrial Engineering at CETYS University, Campus Ensenada, 1983-1987

Certificate Studies at Cetys University, Ensenada:

- Finance 1 year
- Human Resources 1 year
- Total control of Quality 1 year

Experience

- Director of Academic Linkage: Industry-Academia, in Cetys University, Ensenada B. C. 2006 until today.
- Sub-Director of Material Resources and Services, in CICESE Research Center, Ensenada B.C., México, (2003- 2005) Main Duties: To administer the functions of acquisitions, public work, maintenance to facilities, safety, services and stores in fulfillment of the applicable policies and procedures to assure the ideal conditions in the infrastructure and the opportune supply of materials and equipments needed by the substantive, administrative areas and of support for the fulfillment of his aims.
- Sub-Director of Human Resources, in CICESE Research Center, Ensenada B.C., México, (1998-2003.) Main Duties: In charge of applying the administrative process in the area of Human Resources with the purpose of choosing, of developing and preserving with identical characteristics to the aims of the Center. To supervise the application of the plans of remuneration, and social safety in suitable and opportune form. To propose programs of training and the honest exercise of the functions and the efficient development of the activities. To stimulate programs that increase the productivity of the personnel and the improvement of the labor climate.
- Director of Continuous Education in Cetys University, Ensenada, B.C., (1996-1998) Main duties: To direct the programs of continuing education, language center, consulting and training directed at companies of the region. Person in charge of applying the administrative process to plan, budget, and control specific activities for the fulfillment of the indicators of measurement of the area.

- Director of the Engineering School at Cetys University, Ensenada B. C. (1988-1996) Main duties: To direct the academic programs of the school, in charge of applying the administrative process to the achievement of the half-yearly indicators. To develop programs of work and administration of the human resource. Co-founder of the Engineering Week
- Teacher in the School of Engineering (1988 to date) and Graduate School (2000 to date) in Cetys University, Ensenada B. C. Teaching

Numerical methods, Linear Algebra, Introduction to the Industrial Engineering, Probability & Statistics, Economic Engineering & Project Feasibility of Investment , Industrial Administration , Strategic Administration, Quality Systems, Seminar of Industrial Engineering, Human Resources, Quality Systems

Publications

Technical reports for companies of the region in the topic of: manuals of quality, manuals of organization and procedures.

Technical reports for executive training in companies of the region in the topics of: statistical tools, projects of investment, systems of quality, employment, salaries and compensations

Presentations and consulting activities

Systems of Quality management
Systems of Selection and Contracting personnel.

Awards, fellowships and grants

Graduated with Honors from the Major (1985)
Graduated with Honors from the Certificate Program on Quality Control (1985)

Skills and qualifications

Fluency in English: 60%

Professional affiliations

Committee of Managerial and Educational Linkage of Ensenada
Center of Entrepreneurs (Coparmex)
Human Resource Association (ARIENAC)

